

EDITORIAL

Dear Readers and Authors,

I am delighted to present Volume 9, Issue 1 of our journal, Pesquisa, which marks the successful completion of its third year of publication. It is an honour to serve as the Editor-in-Chief of this esteemed annual journal, which has now published nine regular issues. We are actively working towards achieving national indexing for our journal, aiming to position it among the world's premier academic publications.

Pesquisa is a multidisciplinary, multilingual journal that welcomes a diverse range of submissions. We invite papers on general survey research, attitudinal studies, investigations into broad societal issues, or any empirical research that fits within our journal's scope. Authors are encouraged to submit their work year-round, ensuring that they adhere to our submission criteria and requirements.

As a peer-reviewed journal, Pesquisa upholds stringent review standards. If your research aligns with our criteria, we encourage you to consider submitting your work to Pesquisa. The success of any journal relies on the collective efforts of contributors, reviewers, associate editors, and the publication staff. I extend my heartfelt thanks to all of them for their unwavering support and dedication to Pesquisa.

Warm regards,

Rev. Dr Bennichen Scaria

Editor-in-Chief
